
THE JOURNAL OF SEIZAN GAKUEN CONTENTS

Research Articles:

A Consideration of Educational Environments for Cultivating Humanity and Compassion in a Symbiotic Society: Focusing on Resonance through Intercultural Perspectives.

KUREYA Natsuko

Professional Development of Early Childhood Educators in Inclusive Settings: A Reflective Analysis of Practical Knowledge in An Inclusive Society.

OTOWA Taeko

Considerations for Supporting "Children of Concern" in Daycare Centers-Focusing on Caregiver Support Considerations, System Development, and Differences Based on Attributes-

SHIDO Fujiko

An Empirical Study of Teaching the Five Sentence Patterns Based on Cognitive Grammar.

TANAKA Yuki

Research Notes:

Developing Learning Materials for Polysemous Words in Japanese Language Education: An Examination of the "Analogical Learning Method" Based on Cognitive Approach

TANAKA Yuki

Japanese Language Studies in 19th Century Europe: J. J. Hoffmann and Léon de Rosny

KITAGAWA Tomoko

Research Reports:

Understanding children and their well-being: Assessment and support development of children

HORIKAWA Hiroyuki

PUBLISHED BY
KYOTO SEIZAN COLLEGE
KYOTO, JAPAN